Manna for Meditation

Silent

Poet: Edgar A Guest

I did not argue with the man,
It seemed a waste of words.
He gave to chance the wondrous plan
That gave sweet song to birds.

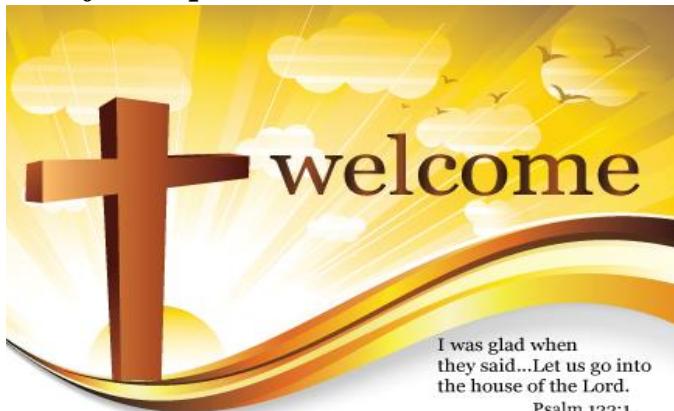

He gave to force the wisdom wise
That shaped the honeybee,
And made the useful butterflies
So beautiful to see.

And as we walked 'neath splendid trees
Which cast a friendly shade,
He said: "Such miracles as these
By accident were made."

Too well I know what accident
And chance and force disclose
To think blind fury could invent
The beauty of a rose.

I let him talk and answered not.
I merely thought it odd
That he could view a garden plot
And not believe in God.

The Loner Christian

The Loner Christian is alive in Christ and enjoys fellowship with God. His life is full of blessings but the Loner Christian is keeping his blessings to himself.

Jesus said He came so that we "may have life and have it abundantly." (John 10:10) Christianity is a faith that should be lived through both our words and our actions.

Jesus told Peter in John 21:17 that if he loved Him he would care for His followers. We're all blessed with some sort of gift. Some are good at encouraging, some are able to teach, some love to pray, others have the gift of compassion. There are many different types of gifts but what they all have in common is the gifts God gives us are designed to serve others. This stands in sharp contrast to the world which put its emphasis on serving yourself.

REMEMBER

As you give school supplies this year, it is not only the giving, but the remembering of that youth during the year. Remember them on their birthdays, holidays. Also, every day in prayer.

Care does not mean manipulation or control.

"To live a fruitful (fecundity) life, we need an environment that keeps us from being afraid and allows the weak, vulnerable fruits within us to grow in strength.

Care does not mean manipulation or control.

A seed will never grow if we pull it out of the ground daily to check its progress; likewise, the fruits of our own and others' lives will never mature if we want to control every stage of their development.

Care does not mean manipulation or control.

Products need constant maintenance in order to prevent breakdown. Fruits, on the other hand, ask only for the rich soil, water, air, and sunlight of a caring environment in order to flourish.

Care does not mean manipulation or control.

Jesus cared deeply for the people He met. He did not control or dominate them, but through His words and actions offered them an opportunity to search for new directions and make new choices.

Care does not mean manipulation or control."
