Good Morning everyone! Today is a great day! It is

BAPTISM DAY AGAIN for us! Jesus commanded us to make disciples and baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Today we celebrate Ivy Parker and her profession of faith in Jesus. Let's be excited at what we all have to celebrate today: God's great love to us and for all!

If you are visiting with us today, you are our honored guest! Welcome! Sit back and relax. You are among friends. We are delighted to have you with us. If possible, I would love to connect with you before you leave today...

With you on the Journey,

Pastor John & Debbie

Your fellowship today is important to us. Please fill out the attendance pads at the end of each pew.

It is hard
To forget
To apologize
To save money
To be unselfish
To avoid mistakes
To keep out of a rut
To begin all over again
To make the best of all things
To keep your temper at all times
To think first and act afterwards
To maintain a high standard
To keep on keeping on
To shoulder blame
To be charitable
To admit error
To take advice
To forgive
But it pays!

There will be a Holiday Craft Fair on Saturday, November 2nd. For booth rental and more information see Judy Thompson.

Next Sunday there will be a box on the pew in the narthex to start collecting candy for Trick or Treat time at Halloween.

The "Walk to Emmaus" is a once in a lifetime 72-hour spiritual journey where the love and grace of Jesus is re-presented to pilgrims in ways beyond imagination.

The October Gathering of the Hoosier Hills Emmaus Community will be at First Baptist Church of Martinsville, IN on October 4th. This Gathering is open to EVERYONE. For more information contact myself or Jennifer Drapalik.

I am looking forward to seeing all of our new community members from Walk 131 and Walk 132 at the Hoosier Hills Emmaus Gathering on October 4th. EVERYONE is welcome to attend and learn more about what the "Walk to Emmaus" is all about.

Ross Drapalik
